SRI Quality System Registrar - Corporate Executive Leadership

Dr. Peter B. Lake, Founder, Chairman of the Board, CEO, SRI Quality System Registrar

Dr. Peter B. Lake, founder of SRI, served as Chairman, CEO, and President of SRI since its inception in 1991. In 2005, President and COO responsibilities were given to Christopher Lake, and Dr. Lake assumed the full-time strategic role for the company.

Since its founding in 1991, Dr. Lake has led SRI's growth from part of a steel industry initiative (SISAP) involving 14 steel companies to become one of the top 5 U.S. owned and operated registrars, and recognized worldwide as the leader in serving metals and materials companies. Today, SRI serves companies in over 40 industries in a variety of international and sector-specific standards.

Dr. Lake spent most of his career in the steel industry, working for Youngstown Steel and National Steel respectively. He has several successful steel patents and has held positions from Director of Research and Development, to Marketing Manager, to Corporate Quality Manager. He established and was the first Director of the National Steel Product Application Center, in Detroit.

Dr. Lake served as a Senior Malcolm Baldrige Examiner and as a judge for Pittsburgh's Quality Award. He was a founder and the first VP of the International Association of Accredited Registrars, IAAR, and, since 1994, the ongoing chairman of the (QS-9000) International Automotive Sector Group, IASG. He also served as a representative to the U.S. TAG to TC 176 on ISO 9000, and he has authored many papers and presentations on international quality standards.

Dr. Lake has served on the Board of Directors of The Gorman-Rupp Company, Mansfield, Ohio, since 1975. He also founded, is part owner of, and a Director of, the Laboratory Accreditation Bureau, L-A-B.

Dr. Lake received his Bachelor of Science from Penn State and earned his Doctorate in Metallurgical Engineering from Ohio State.
